"That the honour and title of Honorary Freeman of the City of Brighton and Hove be bestowed on Mr. Adam Trimingham in grateful recognition of his eminent and distinguished service and dedication to professional journalism rendered to the City of Brighton and Hove during his illustrious and distinguished career."

4. The Mayor will then call on Councillors Taylor and Elgood to support the Motion.
5. The Mayor will then call on Lord Bassam and Mr. Bob Cristofoli to support the Motion on behalf of former Councillors.
6. The Mayor will then call on any other Member that wishes to speak.
7. The Mayor will then put the proposition to the Council for agreement.

(Note: Section 249 of the Local Government Act 1972 requires that Honorary Freeman are appointed by a majority of the Members present.)

8. The Mayor will invite the new Honorary Freeman to receive the inscribed resolution and invite him to make a short address to the Council.
9. The Mayor will declare the end of the special meeting.
