

Meeting/Date	Licensing Committee (Non Licensing Act 2003 Functions) 4th October 2007
Report of	Assistant Director – Public Safety
Subject	Report on the extended trading hours for Upper Gardner St Market
Wards affected	St Peter's & North Laine

Financial implications

Fees from the street trader content fee will continue to be collected at the current rate although charges will be reviewed as part of Brighton and Hove City Councils 2008/2009 budget strategy to ensure that no costs are passed to the council tax payer.

Finance Officer consulted: Alasdair Ridley Date 21/09/2007

Legal implications

No legal issues identified by the recommendations in this report

Lawyer consulted: Rebecca Sidell Date 12 September 2007.

Corporate/Citywide implications

Consultation has taken place with other agencies including Highways, Parking and City Clean .

Risk assessment

No additional risks identified.

Sustainability implications

There are no additional environmental and sustainability implications relating to these proposals.

Equalities implications

None

Implications for the prevention of crime and disorder

None

Background papers

None

Contact Officer

Martin New SEHO ext 2425