Please note that new performance indicators relating to planned and major works are currently being developed and will be included in future versions of these performance reports once new arrangements are in place. Updates are as follows:

- Planned works and improvement programmes

A consultation period with leaseholders has been carried out regarding our proposals to enter into long term agreements with contractors to deliver planned maintenance and improvement programmes. If no changes are made as a result of the consultation, the contracts are due to be in place and operational in January 2021.

- Major Capital Works framework (MCW) update

Suppliers have returned their tender bids for the Major Capital Projects framework, and evaluation and moderation of the bids is underway. We anticipate the framework will be in place in April 2021.

Response to Area Panel feedback – Quarter 1 2020/21 report

Feedback	Response
Some graphics (eg microscopes) do not seem relevant or meaningful.	The graphics have been reviewed and some (eg microscopes) have been removed.
Contents pages: the headings don't match the table headings in the report.	The contents pages have now been amended to include the table headings for the performance indicators.
Contents pages: the wording 'council house buy backs' should read 'council home buy backs' to include flats as well as houses.	The report which went to Housing Committee, following Area Panels, was amended to rectify this.
Item 5.5 ('Develop the work undertaken with leaseholders to develop a new leasehold involvement policy, setting out how leaseholders can be supported to be more proactively involved in capital works and other leasehold matters') should not be considered as 'on target' – for example, due to delays in carrying out the leaseholder survey.	The commentary for this item has been updated and as part of this is no longer marked as 'on track.'
The Senior Leasehold Liaison officer was recruited before 2020/21 so this is not relevant information.	This reference has been removed from the latest version of the report.
The green tick symbols used in the workplan actions are not useful and sometimes misleading.	The report which went to Housing Committee, following Area Panels, was amended to remove these symbols.
There are many items / performance indicators which do not have targets and should not be in the report.	While there are many indicators which do not have targets, sometimes because whether results are higher/lower does not mean better/worse performance, these provide useful contextual information to accompany the targeted performance indicators. However, there are some indicators which don't currently have targets (eg the number of empty council homes) where it may be possible to set some, so these will be consulted upon with operational managers and the Housing Leadership Team for inclusion in a future version of the report.

Feedback	Response
What are 'customer compliments' as referred to under item 9.1?	Customer compliments are recorded by the corporate Customer Feedback team, based on comments forwarded to them by staff in Housing and other council services. The vast majority are from members of the public and are often positive comments about individual members of staff. The corporate team vet the comments – eg if they are merely a 'thank you' then they are not recorded as compliments.
It would be useful to know the source of customer complaints – eg whether they come from tenants or leaseholders	This should be possible to work out but could take some considerable analytical work, so we will attempt to include a breakdown in the Q3 report to allow enough time.
There should be a target of zero for the number of leaseholder disputes raised (item 9.5)	It would not be possible or desirable to receive no leaseholder disputes. For example, often issues are logged as a dispute to put a hold on chasing payment, such as in cases where a leaseholder is challenging their share of the costs of a repair.
Report should indicate that a leaseholder dispute is often about money (as well as quality of work) and include amounts paid in compensation	We will explore the possibility of adding this as an indicator in time for Quarter 3, which is when most disputes arise.
The distinction between performance indicators relating to council housing and other services such as temporary accommodation needs to be clearer.	The headings of the report have been reworked to make the distinction clearer.
Additional council homes table: include figures for how many council homes sold through the Right to Buy were flats or houses.	A comment has been added to the Quarter 2 report under item 14.6 with a breakdown of the 14 homes sold during the first half of 2020/21: 9 were flats (2 one bed, 5 two bed, 2 three bed) and 5 were houses (4 two bed, 1 four bed).
Home purchase performance data: include figures for how many council home buy backs were flats or houses.	A line has been added to the Quarter 2 report with a breakdown of the 74 purchases achieved between the start of the programme and the end of September 2020: 65 flats (4 studio, 26 one bed, 29 two bed, 6 three bed) and 9 houses (4 two bed, 5 three bed).

There are many references to 'tenants' – who is being referred to?	Any reference to tenants refers to people or households who rent their home from the council, under a secure or introductory tenancy with their rent due on a weekly basis. This includes general needs and seniors housing tenants. This does not include other stakeholders such as leaseholders, who are specified as such when referred to elsewhere in the report.
Include additional indicators about anti-social behaviour (ASB) affecting council housing. For example, the average length of time taken to deal with cases, and the number still open.	We will be consult with operational managers and the Housing Leadership Team on how to include these indicators in future versions of the report.
Several performance indicators around major works and planned maintenance are not in the report yet.	Notes have been added to the Quarter 2 report to give more information on the timescales of when the new arrangements will take effect and performance reporting will commence.
Repairs Helpdesk performance indicators are not in the report yet.	The Repairs Helpdesk resumed service in September 2020 and the report includes a note to say that performance indicators about the volume and timeliness of calls handled will be provided in the Quarter 3 report, when there will be a full quarter of data, which can be compared with performance for September alone.
The new style performance report is shorter than the previous version – what has happened to the information taken out?	A table has been included in this document (starting on the next page) summarising the information taken out, including whether and where it is still available.
